

AV3.sem2.FINAL.05-06.SPEAKING

A

1. You have a friend who is afraid of spiders. What would you say to reassure him or her?
2. Would you prefer to live in the country or the city? Why?
3. A guest just arrived at your house. Greet your guest and make him or her feel at home.

B

1. You really want to go on a safari, but your best friend isn't too thrilled with the idea. Try to convince your friend by telling him or her all about what you can do and see. Respond to his/her uncertainty and fear.
2. You were late meeting a friend after school. Apologize and suggest another activity to do together.
3. You and a friend live in the city and are going to visit her grandparents, who live in the country. Ask 3 or 4 questions about life in the country.

C

1. A friend is going on safari but doesn't know what to take. Tell him or her what to bring.
2. Compare Tunis to a large city in the United States and tell in which city you would rather spend your vacation.
3. Your friend can't decide what to do after graduation. Give him or her some advice.

D

1. If you lived in the country, what would you do?
2. You and your parent are discussing your future plans. You would like to travel, but your parent thinks you should go directly to college. Try to convince your parent that you can go to college later.
3. Your little brother/sister is driving you crazy. He or she won't be quiet and you get in an argument.

E

1. If you lived in a big city, what would you do?
2. You're a guidance counselor at your high school. A student is asking you for advice about his or her future plans. Ask the student what he or she likes to do, and offer him or her advice.
3. You invite a friend to go to the movies with you. Arrange a time and place to meet.

F

1. You and your friend are discussing plans for summer vacation. Give your friend ideas and say what you intend to do.
2. Apologize for having lost your friend's favorite book.
3. You've just moved to a big city and you've had a really bad day. Complain to your friend.

G

1. Your friend is undecided about what to do after he or she passes the bac. Suggest some possibilities.
2. You and your friend are telling each other about your families. Talk about your family, or an imaginary family, if you prefer.
3. You're on a safari and there are a lot of incredible animals you and your friend have never seen before. You call your parents to let them know what fun you are having. Express your excitement and astonishment at all the animals you have seen.

H

1. You're a very busy person! Your friend suggests things to do, but you already have other plans. Refuse your friend's suggestions and make excuses.
2. You have just moved to a big city from the country. Tell your friend how life in the city is different from life in the country.
3. Your friend is complaining, again, about her little brother, who is always annoying her. Ask her 3 or 4 questions about what her brother does to annoy her.

I

1. Your friend is going on a trip to visit some mutual friends of yours. Ask him to convey good wishes to all of your friends and to tell them that you will write or call soon.
2. You are talking to your parents about what you would like to do after high school. Tell them your plans.
3. Your friend is complaining, again, about her little brother, who is always annoying her. Ask her 3 or 4 questions about what her brother does to annoy her.

J

1. You and your parents are talking about your plans to go to college. Ask them 3 or 4 questions about what you should take and what you will do once you get there.
2. Your friend has just arrived home from a safari. You are looking at his pictures. Ask him 3 or 4 questions about what there is to see and do on a safari.
3. Your sister is playing the radio too loudly. Express your annoyance and reprimand him or her.